

DOUBLE GUARD LEST RICHESON ESCAPE CHAIR

Pastor Who Poisoned Avis
Linnell Searched and Eyeglass Taken From Him.

HAD A THIRD FIANCEE.

Wrote Promise to Go West to Miss Felts Day After
- Victim Died.

BOSTON, Jan. 15.—A double guard to-day watches the Rev. Clarence V. T. Richeson, sentenced to die in May for poisoning his former fiancée, Miss Avis Linnell. Even his eyelids have been taken from him, through fear he might attempt to commit suicide or injure himself. He is allowed to use them when he wants to read, but at such times he is watched every moment by his guards in murderers' row in the Suffolk County jail.

When officers, acting under orders of Sheriff Quinn, took the self-confessed murderer's places he raved and screamed and demanded to know by what right his property was taken from him. He quieted down when told he could have them when he needed them. He declared he had no intention of trying to take his life.

It became known today that the day after Avis Linnell died from the poison sent to her by the young clergyman, who had lapsed her and promised to marry her, and while he was a guest in the home of his fiancée, Miss Violet Edwards, he wrote a letter to a third fiancée, Miss Patsy Felts of Salt Lake City, dying now from consumption.

Twelve Massachusetts clergymen have been asked their opinion as to a commutation of Richeson's death sentence. The jury stood nine to three for death. The three who voted against it did so because they are against capital punishment, and not through any idea of mitigating circumstances in Richeson's case.

Miss Edwards has ceased to write to him. Her last letter was written the day after he penned his confession. All her letters were postmarked New York, but it is believed she sent them there and had them mailed by relatives. Richeson's lawyers deny that Moses Grant Edmunds has withdrawn his support of the man who was to have married his daughter.

Recent statements credited to Gov. Fox are taken to indicate that Richeson may go to the chair after all. These statements were given out by the Governor's secretary, and in effect were that while the Governor is personally against capital punishment, he will "under no conditions seek to extend the power vested in him or to evade the responsibilities fixed upon him by the Constitution and statutes of the Commonwealth."

FREEPORT BOARD MEETS TO CHOOSE A PRINCIPAL.

Citizens Demanded Resignations of Members, but They Are Still in Office.

The Freeport (N. Y.) Board of Education will meet to-night to choose a principal for the High School to succeed Toy Leon Smith, who was dismissed on Jan. 5 for writing a letter in which he criticized the Board. The dismissal of Smith was opposed by Trustee Albin N. Johnson, who tendered his verbal resignation from the Board as a result. Mr. Johnson has fought on the side of Freeport's citizens who opposed the Board.

The dismissal of Smith resulted in a holding of a mass meeting by citizens last Wednesday night. Frank E. Fisher was chairman. Mr. Johnson offered a resolution requesting the president of the Board and Principal Smith each to appoint an advisory committee of five, the four members to be selected by the citizens. The resolution was carried by 200 to 50.

When the original resolution calling for the resignation of the Board was taken up and carried by 251 to 20, Edward P. Cook offered a resolution requesting Mr. Johnson to withdraw his resignation as a member of the Board. It was unanimously carried.

STABBED AT FILM SHOW.

Patron Who Couldn't Find Seat
Arrested for Attacking Proprietor.

In a dispute with a patron who was unable to find a seat, James Garvin of No. 21 West street, proprietor of a moving picture theatre on Chatham square, was stabbed in the back this afternoon.

Sylvester Marchio, fifteen years old, of No. 21 South Second street, Jersey City, was arrested, charged with the slaying. Garvin was taken to the Hudson Street Hospital by Dr. Garrott, who said that he probably would recover.

WOMEN AT 40 CAN LOSE OLD-AGE LOOK BY VARIETY IN LIFE.

Miss Villa Faulkner Page, in an address on "How Old Are You?" before a large number of women in the hall of the Professional Woman's League yesterday, said:

It is a nightmare to every woman to grow old just as she is, is troubling with life and energy and plans. At forty we are young. Gossiping, fretting and the steady monotony of too much home life bring the look of old age. Get away from all these. Get something to do outside of the home. Join a club. Go to baseball games. Do something—anything.

Life does not mean a cessation, but a continuation, of action. You are better fitted for work at fifty than at forty. Nowadays many men retire at fifty. This is wrong. Men can do many things better during the twenty years from fifty to seventy than during the twenty from thirty on.

Don't worry about beauty or youth, but about the loss of the beautiful things of the world and that you are a part of them. The power of perpetual youth lies within all.

WATCHMAN'S LIFE ENDED WITH DOG BY HIS SIDE.

Employer Thinks He Turned On the Gas Because He Was Depressed.

With his faithful collie dog by his side, Charles Feigle, a night watchman in the sale and horse exchange stable of Henry Newman, No. 311 Rutledge street, Williamsburg, was found dead in the office of the building early this morning. Gas was flowing from a partly open burner. The dog, which had been Feigle's companion for a year, was also dead.

Newman, Feigle's employer, thinks the man took his life, as he had been depressed for some time. Day Watchman Jacob Solomon says Feigle was cheerful last night when he left him. During the night neighbors heard the dog howling. It is believed the animal tried to attract attention. Police Surgeon Silverstein says the man had been dead about three hours when found, at 4 o'clock this morning. Feigle had no money and slept in the horse exchange office.

CROSSED RIVER ON ICE.

Several Women Among Those Who Walked Over From Yonkers and Back.

Persons walked across the Hudson River on ice at Yonkers yesterday for the first time in twenty years. The river is about a mile wide there and the ice is from two or three inches to nearly a foot thick.

Walter Rudman, mate on the tugboat Joseph Boone, was the first to make the trip, walking from the Yonkers Public Dock to Alpine, N. J., and back. Later several women, among others, made the trip.

WOMEN, AVOID OPERATIONS

Many Unsuccessful — And Worse Suffering Often Follows. Mrs. Rock's Case
A Warning.

The following letter from Mrs. Orville Rock will show how unwise it is for women to submit to the dangers of a surgical operation when of an age it may be avoided by taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. She was four weeks in the hospital and came home suffering worse than before.

Here is her own statement:

Paw Paw, Mich.—"Two years ago I suffered very severely with a displacement. I could not be on my feet for a long time. My physician treated me for several months without relief and at last sent me to Ann Arbor for an operation. I was there four weeks and came home suffering worse than before. My mother advised me to try Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, and I did. Today I am well and strong and do all my own housework. I owe my health to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and advise my friends who are afflicted with any female complaint to try it."

ORVILLE ROCK, R. R. No. 5, Paw Paw, Michigan.

If you are ill do not drag along until an operation is necessary, but at once take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

For thirty years it has been the standard remedy for women's ills, and has restored the health of thousands of suffering women. Why don't you try it?
